COMMITMENT

Commit yourselves one to another,
not to your own selfish wants and desires.
Commit unto Him for he committed to you,
His life, your life a good trade to desire.

The sacrifice, the great commitment,
what little commitment from us to He.
He asks for life in exchange for life,
what little we give is pleasure to Him.

To the mountains we go, missing Church.
To justify our time away from the fold,
we say God is there wherever we go.
But where is the commitment to Him, his church?

God is still there, but where's the church?
The church is His people to whom we commit.
Where's our commitment when at the mount?
Where is the family to whom we're a part?
